The MTL User & Machine Management System (MUMMS) is a Web based application for the managing of lab users and computers. MUMMS is currently in use in MTL and will be in use for other MIT labs and departments in the near future. This is the documentation wiki for MUMMS.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Page</th>
<th>Intended Audience</th>
<th>Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>What Is MUMMS?</td>
<td>All MUMMS users</td>
<td>A brief overview of MUMMS concepts</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Typical User Registration and Approval Process</td>
<td>All MUMMS users</td>
<td>How user registration and approval works in a fairly typical new user scenario</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Labs and Services</td>
<td>All MUMMS users</td>
<td>The labs using MUMMS and the services provided by them</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Approving Charges for a New User</td>
<td>Supervisors of users and their administrators</td>
<td>How to approve or deny charges for a user</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Managing Allocations</td>
<td>Supervisors of users and their administrators</td>
<td>How to manage charge allocations for existing users and computers</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Replacing a Cost Object</td>
<td>Supervisors of users and their administrator; Lab staff</td>
<td>How to replace a cost object with another cost object for multiple users and computers across multiple charge categories.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Viewing Cost Recovery Reports</td>
<td>Supervisors of users and their administrator; Lab staff</td>
<td>Viewing reports of charges for a billing period within the Cost Recovery application.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Notes about MUMMS Allocations</td>
<td>Supervisors of users and their administrator; Lab staff</td>
<td>Some useful information about what “allocations” really means within MUMMS</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>MUMMS Staff Documentation</td>
<td>Lab staff</td>
<td>Documentation for staff</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Click for information on MIT Accessibility